

Everything Epic Bible Part 3: This 6-week class continues the study of the biblical books in their canonical order and interrelations as chapters in the one, inspired, inerrant, perfect, Epic of all Epics, written by God for His Church on her journey back to Him.

Continuing from last semester, we will be exploring the books of 1 & 2 Samuel, and 1 & 2 Kings. Even if you did not take part in previous sessions you can take this class and will benefit greatly from it. This class will be a bi-weekly class beginning on Wednesday, September 24 from 7pm-8:30pm in the Academy Cafeteria. This class will be taught by Dr. Nathan Schmiedicke. To register please contact Michael Tober at dre@shgr.org

A Forest of Symbols: The Mystery of the Mass

This 6-week study of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will cover an introduction to the Church's Liturgy, as well as a practical study of the symbols of the Traditional Roman Rite of the Mass. While studying the Ancient Rite of the Church, participants will come to a deeper understanding of how the Mass passes on the Faith we profess. This will be a bi-weekly class beginning on Wednesday, September 17, from 7pm-8:30pm in the Academy Cafeteria. The class will be taught by Michael Tober. To register please contact Michael Tober at dre@shgr.org

OCIA / Catholic Inquiry Class: Sacred Heart offers opportunities for individuals to gather and learn more about the Catholic Christian Faith. Sessions are suitable for those looking to deepen their understanding of the Faith and for those discerning full communion with the Catholic Church through the Order of Christian Initiation of Adults (OCIA). Sessions will begin on Monday, September 22 at 7:00 p.m. in Cebelak Hall. To register please contact Michael Tober at dre@shgr.org
